DEAN'S OFFICE FOR INSTITUTIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

PUBLIC NOTICE N° 01/2018/PRAE/PROGRAD/PROINT/ REITORIA-UNILA, OF JULY 18TH 2018.

This public notice sets the rules and regulations for the selection process of refugees and holders of humanitarian visas in the Brazilian territory for entering the Federal University of Latin American Integration – UNILA in the year of 2019.

The Federal University of Latin American Integration (UNILA) is a public bilingual university, bound to the Ministry of Education of Brazil, located in the city of Foz do Iguaçu, State of Paraná. It has the mission of providing academic and political education for the integration of Latin America, through regional development, cultural, scientific and educational exchange in Latin America and the Caribbean. WHEREAS:

- the dignity of the human person is one of the foundations of the Federal Republic of Brazil (article 1, III CF/88);
- the Federal Republic of Brazil has the goals of building a free, fair and sympathetic society, and promoting welfare for every person, regardless of their origin, race, sex, color, age and any other forms of discrimination (article 3, I, IV CF/88);
- the international relations of the Federal Republic of Brazil are ruled by the prevalence of human rights and the building of relationships based on cooperation between the peoples for the progress of human kind (article 4, II, IX CF/88);
- the Federal Republic of Brazil is committed to the Declaration of the Human Rights (1948), the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (1966), and the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (1966);
- the commitments made by the Federal Republic of Brazil to the Charter of the Organization of the American States (1947) and the American Convention on Human Rights – the Pact of San José (1969);
- the commitments made by the Federal Republic of Brazil to the United Nations Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees – Geneva Convention (1951), the Additional Protocol to the Status of Refugees (1967), the Cartagena Declaration on Refugees (1984), the

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION
FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF LATIN AMERICAN INTEGRATION
DEAN'S OFFICE FOR INSTITUTIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Declaration on the Human Rights of Individuals Who Are Not Nationals of the Country in Which They Live (1985), and the Brazil Declaration and Plan of Action (2014);

- the Federal Supreme Court of Brazil established that these treaties on human rights have a characteristic of being above the law but under the constitution in the Brazilian Legal System (RE 466.343/SP, RE 349.703/RS, and ADI 5.240/SP);
- the provisions of Law # 9.474/97, particularly article 44 regarding the facilitation of the process of entering academic institutions at all levels;
- Law # 13.445/17, the Law of Migration, which, in section X, ensures the right to public education and prohibits any form of discrimination due to nationality and the migrating status, as well as Law 9.199/17, which regulates it;
- the Normative Resolution # 97/12 of the National Council of Immigration (CNIg), which regulates the granting of permanent visas to nationals from Haiti;
- the Normative Resolution # 17/13 of the National Committee for Refugees (CONARE), which regulates the granting of appropriate visas to individuals who have been forced out of the Syrian Arab Republic due to the armed conflict in their country;
- the understanding about migration and refuge being social phenomena which can potentially worsen the violations to human rights;
- the current situation of refugees and migrants who are in a situation of vulnerability in Brazil;
- the provisions of Law # 13.684, of June 21st 2018, which contain measures of emergency assistance for receiving people in a situation of vulnerability due to the migration flow created by humanitarian crisis,

The Dean's Office for Institutional and International Relations of UNILA (PROINT) issues the present Public Notice which establishes the rules for the selection of students who are refugees or holders of humanitarian visas in the Brazilian territory, pursuant to the Brazilian law, specially Laws # 12.189/2010, 12.711/2012 and 9.394/1996, as well as other institutional regulations, particularly Resolution COSUEN # 02/2018. Students can apply for any of the 29 (twenty-nine) undergraduate courses of UNILA for the year of 2019.

2.10.2 The applicant's application number will be used in all stages of the present selection process so that the applicant's identity is kept confidential and his refugee status is protected.

3. ASSESSMENT AND RANKING

3.1 The assessment stage is a qualifying and ranking criterion.

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION
FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF LATIN AMERICAN INTEGRATION
DEAN'S OFFICE FOR INSTITUTIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

3.2 Each applicant will have their high school or equivalent grade point average calculated.

3.3 Applicants will be ranked according to their grades from the highest to the lowest, and the diversity of nationalities will be taken into consideration.

3.4 Ranking will start with the applicants who chose a certain course as their first option. When all places have been taken, ranking will include applicants who chose that certain course as a second option and, if there are still places remaining, applicants who chose that course as a third option will be ranked as well.

3.5 In case the applicant does not produce his Student's Transcript, he will only be able to compete for possible remaining places.

3.6 In case of a tie, the following criteria will be considered in this order:

I- Higher grade average point considering the disciplines that are related to the intended undergraduate course, pursuant to Enclosure V;

II- Longer period of stay in Brazil, in accordance with the documents listed in section 2.4 (topic II) of the present Public Notice.

4. STUDENT ASSISTANCE

4.1 Students who are selected, notified and enrolled by means of this Public Notice will be given priority regarding UNILA's Student Assistance Programs, subject to the financial availability of the university.

4.2 The number of openings for each aid program is subject to the financial availability of the university.

4.2.1 Among confirmed applications, students will be given assistance in accordance with the ranking order.

4.2.2 Students who are not initially given financial assistance will become part of a waiting list that will remain valid until Nov/30/2019, during which time they may or may not receive it depending on UNILA's financial availability.

4.2.3 The openings will be primarily given to students who do not have any higher education degree yet.

4.3 For the purpose of this public notice student assistance will be provided in these forms:

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION
FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF LATIN AMERICAN INTEGRATION
DEAN'S OFFICE FOR INSTITUTIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

I – Housing Aid: Intended to partially pay for housing expenses of students who need to live away from their city of origin due to their studies in UNILA. Neither students who receive this aid nor their families must have their own dwelling, even if it is rented or ceded by the government, in the city of Foz do Iguaçu. This aid is provided as a Financial Subsidy of R$300,00 which will be monthly deposited in the student's bank account;

II – Food Aid: Intended to partially pay for food expenses. This aid is provided as a Financial Subsidy of R$300,00 which will be monthly deposited in the student's bank account. If the student receives this aid, he must not be granted any other kind of food aid and/or vouchers;

III – Transportation Aid: It is the granting of monthly credits in the student's public urban transportation card (Cartão Único). Two transportation tickets a day per school day will be credited in the student's card, in observance of UNILA's academic calendar. In order to qualify for this aid, students must not have their own means of transportation such as a car or motorcycle.

4.4 The granting of Housing Aid is prohibited to those who have a border visa.

4.5 The application for UNILA's Student Assistance Programs must be submitted online by students themselves, through INSCREVA, at the following link: <https://inscreva.unila.edu.br/>.

4.5.1 Submissions sent after the deadlines or by e-mail will not be accepted.

4.6 UNILA's Student Assistance Programs will remain valid for the minimum course completion time corresponding to the course the student is enrolled in;

4.6.1 In case students change courses, they will continue to receive any aid(s) granted to them, however such aid(s) will remain valid only for the time corresponding to their first course option;

4.6.2 In case of re-entry or new entry, students will have to participate in a new selection process for student assistance programs, in case there is one open at the time. In such cases, the time during which the student has already been granted aids will be used to calculate the maximum time for receiving the new aid.

4.7 The maintenance of student aids will be conditioned upon the meeting of the following criteria:

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION
FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF LATIN AMERICAN INTEGRATION
DEAN'S OFFICE FOR INSTITUTIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

I - do the academic activities related to the disciplines of student's course achieving a GPA equal to or higher than 6 (six);

II - regularly attend, without dropping the course, at least four curricular components of the course to which the student is bound per semester, considering the course syllabus;

III - do not fail more than one curricular component for grades in two consecutive semesters;

IV - have class attendance that is equal to or higher than 75% of the total class hours of each curricular component of the student's undergraduate course, this means failing for attendance is not permitted.

4.8 The students whose aids are approved must comply with the conditions set by the Dean's Office for Student Affairs and the ones set in this public notice.

4.9 After having his application for aids approved, the student must sign the corresponding Commitment Agreement within the established time.

4.9.1 The signature of the agreements related to housing and food is conditioned upon the production of the following documents:

I - simple copy of the student's active bank account card. The account must be open in the name of the student in any bank in Brazil, it can be a current or savings account. Salary accounts and any accounts in Banco SICRED are not accepted for this purpose;

II - simple copy of the student's CPF.

4.10 Students who have their Housing Aid APPROVED must produce a copy of a Rental Agreement in their name within 60 (sixty) days after signing their Commitment Agreement. They must produce both the copy of aforementioned document and its original so that the copy can be certified, or they can produce a copy that has already been certified by a notary public. If the rental agreement does not contain the student's name, a Declaration made by the landlord must be produced. Compliance with these requirements is mandatory for receiving the Housing Aid Financial Subsidy. If the rental agreement is not produced within the aforementioned period the housing aid will be canceled.

4.11 Not signing the Commitment Agreement within the established time implies students have given up the aid(s) granted upon them.

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION
FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF LATIN AMERICAN INTEGRATION
DEAN'S OFFICE FOR INSTITUTIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

4.12 It is the students' responsibility to know the criteria for maintaining their aids, as well as their rights and obligations regarding the university's Student Assistance Policy.

4.13 Students must appear at the Dean's Office for Student Affairs (PRAE) in order to sign the necessary agreements and requests, as well as for the interviews scheduled by the multi-professional team from this Office on the dates established in the institutional means of communication.

4.13.1 Students must appear at PRAE until the 20th (twentieth) day of each month in order to sign the receipt for the aids paid to them.

4.13.2 If students fail to sign their monthly receipt, payments will be suspended until they normalize the situation. Retroactive payments corresponding to the suspended time will not be provided.

4.14 The first payment of financial aids will only be made after the student confirms his enrollment, signs the necessary Commitment Agreements, produces a copy of his CPF and of his active bank account in Brazil pursuant to section 4.10.1.

4.15 If, at any time, violations to the rules of the Program are found or irregularities regarding documents and information provided by the student are verified, student aids can be canceled and the case will be sent to analysis so that necessary measures can be taken.

4.16 The participation of the student in this selection process implies his full acceptance of the rules herein established.

4.17 The filing of properly well-founded appeals is permitted only through the web page of INSCREVA, at <https://inscreva.unila.edu.br/>.

4.18 The filing of appeals regarding the Final Results is not permitted.

4.19 Questions about applications for student assistance must be sent to the following e-mail address: prae@unila.edu.br.

5. THE COURSE OF MUSIC

5.1 The course of Music has two emphasis: Research in Music and Interpretive Practice, the latter being divided into five specific degrees (Singing, Music Composition, Percussion, Piano and Guitar).

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION
FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF LATIN AMERICAN INTEGRATION
DEAN'S OFFICE FOR INSTITUTIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

5.1.1 Aiming at making better use of the places offered, the Executive Committee of the Selection Board may pass the candidate for the emphasis of his choice or for a different emphasis.

5.2 Applicants who are interested in studying Music, must indicate the emphasis of their choice in Enclosure II and also attach a letter of introduction to this document, besides all that is requested in section 3. The letter of introduction must be written according to the following instructions:

I- Those interested in Interpretive Practice must indicate which degree they wish to take: Singing, Percussion, Piano, Guitar or Music Composition;

II- The letter of introduction must contain the reasons why the applicant chose that particular emphasis/degree and a written description of his previous musical experience and knowledge;

III- Those interested in Research in Music must indicate which area they would like to research about during the course;

IV- Those interested in studying Music must also attach a video pursuant to the provisions of section 5.3 to Enclosure II which must be fully filled out and signed.

5.3 Applicants who are interested in the course of Music must attach a video performing (alone or in group) at least three songs of different music genres, following the instructions below:

I- The applicant must introduce himself in the video, saying his name, the emphasis/degree of choice, the names of the songwriters of the songs to be performed;

II- The applicant's full body must be shown for at least 50% (fifty percent) of the total time of the video;

III- The video must not have sound cutting or editing;

IV- The video must be 5 to 10 minutes long, have a maximum size of 150 MB (megabytes) and be sent in one of these formats: .avi, .mpeg, .mp4 or .flv;

V- Videos that are more than 10 (ten) minutes long will not have its extra time evaluated.

5.4 Applicants who are interested in the degrees of Singing, Piano, Guitar and Percussion must perform the songs using the chosen instrument.

5.5 Applicants for the places in the aforementioned degrees who send videos in which they play a different instrument from the one chosen in the application form will be eliminated.

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION
FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF LATIN AMERICAN INTEGRATION
DEAN'S OFFICE FOR INSTITUTIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

5.6 For the degree of Singing, songs performed by vocal groups (duos, trios, quartets, choirs, etc.) will not be permitted.

5.7 Applicants who are interested in the degree of Music Composition must send a video in which they perform three songs using any instrument and at least one of them must be their of own authorship.

5.7.1 Applicants may attach music sheets of their creation if they find it relevant.

5.8 Applicants who choose the emphasis on Research in Music shall perform the chosen songs using any instrument.

5.9 The Executive Committee of the Selection Board which is formed by professors of music of UNILA will evaluate the videos considering the following criteria:

- I. For songs performed with the voice: technical control of the voice in aspects such as tuning, rhythmic precision, relaxation, posture, breathing and sound control;
- II. For songs performed with instruments: technical control of the instrument in aspects such as confidence, rhythmic precision, posture and sound control;
- III. Expressive control of factors such as: phrasing, articulation, idiom, dynamics and groove.

5.10 Besides the aforementioned criteria, the selection for the course of Music will also consider an evaluation of the applicants' specific skills and an analysis of the letter of introduction.

5.11 The specific evaluation will be a qualifying criterion. It shall have the same value as the assessment step and it shall be carried by the Selection Board or the executive committee appointed for this purpose.

5.12 The grade attributed to the video will be added to the grade earned by the applicant in the assessment step, only for the ranking of the course of Music.

6. CONFIRMATION

6.1 The confirmation step is a qualifying criterion and it is the phase when applicants express their commitment to the terms set by UNILA for enrollment in the university.

6.2 Selected applicants will be notified and shall confirm their place pursuant to the terms of the final results which will be published in UNILA's official web page.

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION
FEDERAL UNIVERSITY OF LATIN AMERICAN INTEGRATION
DEAN'S OFFICE FOR INSTITUTIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

6.3 Approved applicants shall be notified to enroll in one of the three courses they indicated as their options.

6.3.1 When applicants confirm their acceptance for one of the places, their right to the other two is canceled.

6.3.2 Applicants who do not confirm their acceptance for the place to which they were approved within the established time shall lose their right to it.

6.3.3 Applicants must inform PROINT at any time about the waiver of their application.
